

SPONSORSHIP FOR ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER REPRESENTATIVES TO ATTEND THE PHAA JUSTICE HEALTH IN AUSTRALIA CONFERENCE

6-7 APRIL 2009,
HILTON ON THE PARK, MELBOURNE

The Cooperative Research Centre for Aboriginal Health (CRAH) has generously made some funds available to the Public Health Association of Australia (PHAA) to cover conference registration for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Representatives to attend the PHAA Justice Health Conference. The Justice Health in Australia, Beyond the Convict Era: Meeting Challenges for the 21st Century Conference, will be held in Melbourne from 6-7 April 2009. Information regarding the conference can found on the PHAA website at www.phaa.net.au

Due to the limited budget, allocation of the scholarships is competitive. While there is no set application form for scholarships, those seeking a scholarship need to apply addressing the following criteria:

- You must be an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander; and
- Provide a short explanation of what you are seeking from attending the conference and how this will benefit you, your community and/or organization (max 200 words).

Please also advise if you have submitted an abstract to speak at the conference.

All applications must be sent to PHAA via email at marketing@phaa.net.au, or fax (02) 6282 5438, or by mail to PO Box 319, CURTIN ACT 2605.

All applications must be received by COB Friday 13th February 2009.

Please also feel free to forward this email and send through your networks.

Michael Moore

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Michael Moore".

Chief Executive Officer
Public Health Association

Public Health Association
AUSTRALIA