

The Public Health Association of Australia (WA Branch) presents

A Breakfast Seminar with Dr Andrew Gilman from Sustainable Solutions International, Canada

Tuesday 30 October 2007

7.30am – 9am

Cooperative Strategies for Promoting Better Health Among Indigenous Populations

A Case Study on the Canadian Inuit

Dr Andrew Gilman has extensive experience in the areas of sustainable development and health. He is currently Consultant and Research Fellow with the University of Ottawa. In his presentation Dr Gilman will discuss the lessons learnt in Canada about how to effectively engage and produce positive health outcomes with Indigenous communities.

Chair: Glenda Humes (CEO: South West Aboriginal Medical Service)

Fairweathers Bar, Building 42 Fremantle Hotel, Notre Dame University, High Street, Fremantle

Cost $40 Members, $45 Non-members payable with registration. Visit the PHAA WA Conference Website <http://www.phaa.net.au/waConference07.php> to download the registration form.

RSVP by 25 October 2007

to Erin on Erin@ephipps@bigpond.com