Current Public Health Issues in East Timor

Wednesday 21st October 2009

5:30pm – 6.30pm

Room 209, Napier Building, University of Adelaide

Dr Richie Gun is committed to the underserved and underprivileged. He has spent much time working recently as a general practitioner in remote communities in East Timor, and has played an active role in supporting East Timor since the Indonesian invasion in the 1970s. Dr Gun has also been a leading figure in Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) for more than 20 years, and was Chairman of the Interim National Occupational Health and Safety Commission in 1985. He has dedicated much of his career to highlighting the (ill) health of workers.

Dr Gun will present some of his recent work in East Timor, highlighting current public health issues and initiatives.

RSVP by October 16th to: jackie.teggerth@adelaide.edu.au (for catering purposes)
