PHAA and Healthway are pleased to announce capacity building grants to enable Indigenous practitioners in country and remote areas to attend the PHAA (WA) State Conference. Between $1000 - $2000 per person will be available to assist with conference registration fees, travel costs and accommodation.

Don't miss this opportunity to showcase or listen to recent research, programs and services and network with a wide range of stakeholders.

Keynotes secured for the conference to date include:

Mr Tom Calma: Co-Chair of Close the Gap Committee and National Coordinator of Tackling Indigenous Smoking

Dr Paul Vogel: Chair of WA Environmental Protection Authority

Professor Sally Newbury: Director of the SHORE Research Centre in NZ and expert in policy and responses to alcohol marketing Indigenous health and equity are key conference sub-themes.
