

PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA
MEDIA ALERT

www.phaa.net.au

MEDIA ALERT

PHAA's Great Election Public Health Debate

Where: The Hellenic Club of Canberra, Matilda Street, Woden
(Olympus Room)

When: Tuesday 10 August 2010

Time: 7pm – 9:30pm

Gai Brodtmann, ACT Labor candidate for Canberra; Senator Gary Humphries from the Canberra Liberals; and Lin Hatfield Dodds, ACT Greens Senate candidate, will go head-to-head on some of the key public health issues in the national context ahead of the federal election.

Specifically, the candidates will be asked to explore issues such as: the impact of policies in other portfolios on health measures; key priorities for public health; funding for preventive health measures; implementation of Preventative Health Taskforce recommendations on alcohol, tobacco and obesity; improving health outcomes for disadvantaged groups; mental health and comorbidity; Indigenous health; oral health; and climate change policies.

Provisional Program

7:00pm	Dinner commences; introductory comments by Dr Ian White, ACT PHAA Branch President
7:10pm	Introduction to candidates by MC, Michael Moore, PHAA CEO
7:15pm:	Overviews of party policies on public health issues by candidates
7:30pm:	Candidates to each provide answers to questions on key public health issues
9:15pm:	Question and answer session with audience
9:30pm:	Conclusion

For further information/comment:

Dr Ian White, ACT Branch President, PHAA:

0418 389 671

Michael Moore, CEO, PHAA:

0417 249 731

The Great Election Public Health Debate is being hosted by the ACT Branch of the Public Health Association of Australia and is supported by the Australian Health Promotion Association; the University of Canberra Centre for Research & Action in Public Health and The Hellenic Club of Canberra.