CRITERIA FOR FELLOWSHIP OF THE
PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA

Fellowship of the Public Health Association of Australia is an honour bestowed on members who have made a significant contribution to both PHAA and the field of public health.

To be eligible for nomination for Fellowship nominee must have:

- been a member for five years or more, although not necessarily sequential and be a current member;
- a proven track record in the advancement of public health; and
- a strong record of contribution to PHAA as a whole or via any Branch or Special Interest Group.

Criteria for Fellowship

Nominations must address the following criteria in no more than two pages:

- the public health activities and record of the nominee – the importance, impact and acceptance of these activities by peers; and
- the activities undertaken by the nominee within and on the behalf of PHAA – the importance and impact of these activities on the Association.

Nominations must be made within the time periods designated each year, must address the criteria and be accompanied by the Nomination Form.
